Adrian Mironas

Gyda thristwch mawr rydym yn adrodd am golli Dr Adrian Mironas yn ddim ond 31 oed. Roedd Adrian ar ein carfan arloesol gyntaf o AUMA yn 2016, un o ddau yn unig o IBERS. Roedd Adrian yn ganolog i ni wrth i ni roi'r rhaglen ar waith, bod yn gynrychiolydd myfyrwyr ar gyfer ei adran a bwydo drwy ei syniadau ar ein rhaglen dybiedig o'n grŵp ffocws cychwynnol. Cyflawnodd Adrian AFHEA yn llwyddiannus ac roedd ymhlith ein grŵp cyntaf o 12 o raddedigion AUMA ym mis Mai 2017. Roedd bob amser yn AUMAer brwdfrydig ac ymgysylltiol, ac anogodd lawer mwy o fyfyrwyr PhD IBERS i wneud cais am y rhaglen yn y blynyddoedd wedyn, i'r pwynt lle roedd chwarter o'n cyfranogwyr dilynol wedi dod o'r adran honno. Dim ond newydd ddechrau ar ei yrfa ôl-PhD gyda Thechnoleg Iechyd Cymru yr oedd, gan helpu i wneud y cysylltiad rhwng ymchwil flaengar a llunio polisi. Cydymdeimlwn yn ddiffuant â theulu Adrian a’r llu o ffrindiau a wnaeth yn Aberystwyth.

Adrian Mironas

It is with great sadness that we report the loss of Dr Adrian Mironas at just 31. Adrian was on our first pioneering cohort of TPAU in 2016, one of only two from IBERS. Adrian was pivotal in us getting the programme underway, being a student rep for his department and feeding through his ideas on our putative programme from our initial focus group. Adrian successfully achieved AFHEA and was amongst our first group of 12 TPAU graduates in May 2017. He was always an enthusiastic and engaged TPAUer, and encouraged many more IBERS PhD students to apply for the programme in the years afterwards, to the point where a quarter of our subsequent participants have come from that department. He was only just starting out on his post-PhD career with Health Technology Wales, helping to make the link between cutting-edge research and policy making. We extend our sincere condolences to Adrian’s family and the very many friends he made in Aberystwyth.
